	General Counsel DATE: 2 September 1948
FROM:	CSB 25X1A
SUBJECT:	Loss by Fire -
25X1A	Attached hereto are pertinent memoranda concerning the fire sustained by with this organization.	-
25X1A	This office has carefully reviewed the circumstances surrounding this fire, and while no effort is being made to absolve from the blame, certain extenuating circumstances call for the following comments:
25X1A	1. It is realized that one in position should be
25X1A	aware of the possibility of spontaneous combustion. However, it is felt that was not nor should have been in a position to accurately judge that placing the rags in a desk drawer would cause spontaneous combustion.
25X1A	2. was acting in the best interests of the organization and himself by not carrying large sums of Government money on his person while travelling on the road.	••
25X1A 25X1A	3. was observing proper security by locking any and all Government property in his desk for safe keeping.
	4. The actions on the part of in assuming the loss in an effort to protect his confidential informants is commendable.
